

Event Briefing

2019 New Zealand International Building Expo & Summit is one of the biggest property and building events in New Zealand. The event attracts and involves top property and building industry leaders to exchange, discuss, and debate industry issues, ideas, trends and opportunities.

Host: New Zealand Chinese Building Industry Association (NZCBIA)

Dates:

- 16 August 2019 Friday – Annual NZCBIA Conference and Summit
This is an ideal day to upskill and network among leading industry experts with professional seminars and summit.
- 17 – 18 August 2019 Saturday and Sunday (Trade & Public Day).
The NZ International Property & Building Expo is open to the trade and general public with free entry that attracted 10,000+ visitors last year. This is an opportunity to network, meet, learn and engage with builders and the public.

Time:

- Friday - Conference 09:00-16:30 and Gala Dinner from 18:30 - 22:00pm (approximate)
- Saturday & Sunday - Expo from 09:30 to 16:00

Venue: Vodafone Event Centre, Manukau, Auckland

Purpose: It targets urban development stakeholders – developers, design consultants, suppliers, contractors, and other property and building professionals for direct interactions primarily with ethnic Chinese in New Zealand's building industry. The conference is an opportunity to network with key industry leaders in a relaxed environment. The Gala dinner showcases outstanding industry projects and recognise exceptional achievements while meeting with peers and colleagues as recognition of their contributions to the building industry in New Zealand.

Dress: Business attire, black tie optional, for the Gala dinner on 16 August 2019

Guests: Approximately 450 at the Conference and 600 guests in round tables of 10 at the Gala

Theme is COLLABORATION / INNOVATION / PRODUCTIVITY, Summit : Off Site, Off Shore
